Southgate Cricket Club thanks once again our long-time sponsor and active supporter David Gakhar, managing director of Underpin & Makegood. The company's continued generosity has provided a lifeline to the club for many years and we are immensely grateful for the support we have received during those years.

THE 2017 SEASON

Just as for 2016, the 2017 season edition of the Southgate CC Annual Review is largely a series of statistics reflecting the season in a two-dimensional form. The lack of captains' reports, so revealing and often humorous in the past, is sadly now just another unwanted imposition on people who have too much to do. In addition, the Under 21 Middlesex Development League matches were not documented and scorebook information from our oppositions is unavailable if even existing. One opposition maintained they hadn't even entered the competition yet were in our league and fixture card.

Nevertheless, the 2017 season was largely successful across the club except in one crucial area, which was the relegation of the 1st XI from the Premier League. They were relegated by one point and would have avoided this fate except for two penalty points (one for not repainting the creases at tea and the other for repeatedly not submitting umpire reports). The side was also docked £250 from their Premier Division grant for failing to 'live score' many of their matches. However these administrative blunders couldn't hide the struggles the team had throughout the season. There was the odd encouraging win, but in general the pattern was the same where we didn't get enough runs and unlike previous years the spin bowling couldn't mask this.

None of the batsmen was consistent enough. The best was again Tom Edrich whose 477 league runs included a superb hundred at Stanmore. The seam bowling was more consistent, with Rashid Mullahzada taking 22 wickets. This made it a difficult year for new captain Phil Dunnett, but he maintained good spirit in the team which fought right to the end of the season.

In contrast the 2nd XI had a very good season. Having been promoted the year before, they finished second to be promoted again. The batting was again led by Waqas Khan and Adeel Saeed. Dave Woffinden made significant all round contributions, including runs and wickets at Osterley in a win from a very unlikely position that won him the Dunkirk award. Bowling honours were shared around with the biggest contribution coming from Marcello de Crescenzo with 22 wickets. Marcello recently converted to spin bowling and this turned into a major success. With wickets for both 2nd and 3rd XIs Marcello De Crescenzo won the Derek Honnor bowling trophy

The 3rd XI had a very successful return to the Middlesex League. Their league title boiled down to a game against rivals Twickenham. Unfortunately this was lost, but the 3rds were still promoted in second place. Harrison Folland scored runs and took wickets and skipper Adrian Carr was consistent as ever.

The 4th XI had a steady season. A large number of players contributed, but the batting was anchored by Partha Dave with 400 runs at over 30. Kunjal Haria also had a good year with 220 at 55. The bowling was shared around more, though Abhishek Madhavan took 17 wickets in the first part of the season before being promoted to the 3rds. An encouraging aspect was that Southgate colts were to the fore, with Alan Babwah, Shrey Parmar, Tom Parsons and William McLoughlin all making significant performances at different times.

SCC Obituaries

2017 was another sad year for the club when we lost several notable members. The following is largely reproduced from the official club annual report, albeit compiled by the Review editor.

* * * * *

Peter McLoughlin died suddenly in January 2017. Peter was a very keen cricketer whose main link with Southgate was through his three sons, who play with the colts or have progressed into senior cricket. Peter started to play with Southgate a few seasons ago and it was a great shock to his friends amongst other colts' parents and team mates when Peter passed on. There was a memorial game played at Southgate by friends, family and club mates on 9th September. Our deepest sympathy goes to Catherine, Christian, William and Richard.

Derek McGonegle died on 6th December. He joined the club in 1964 as a leg-break bowler and made an immediate mark with 9-52 (of 146-9) for the 3rd XI against Highams Park in 1964, followed in 1965 with 5-9 for the 3rd XI against Potters Bar III. He became principally a stalwart right-hand batsman for the 2nd and 3rd XIs for many years, once featuring in a 2nd wicket partnership of 175 with Ricky Gunn against Hemel Hempstead II in 1977. Generous and warm-hearted, Derek was always positive and encouraging to younger cricketers. He developed a notoriety nearer his retirement for his slowness in scoring, on one occasion remaining on 0 for 51 minutes. In his younger days he played as a wing-forward for Saracens first team and became a club director in later years.

John Golding died on 14th December from cancer of the bladder. He had joined the club in 1971 as a consistently accurate medium pace bowler playing principally for the 2nd XI. He developed a liking for Southgate Compton against whom he took 8-14 in 1971 and 8-22 in 1974, and took seven wickets in an innings on seven further occasions. His best season was 1974 with a season's tally of 97 wickets. He quickly became team secretary and then treasurer for 20 years at a time when the club was in a very poor financial state, organising a variety of fundraising schemes. His top score was 80 not out against Boots Ltd (N. London) in 1982. He retired from regular cricket in 1983, taking 6-17 against Cockfosters in his final match.

Dee Parr died on 29th July at the monumental age of 109 years. Dee's husband Denis was club president from 1977-81 and Dee was a regular supporter.

Derrick Worth died on 20th May at the Azalea Court nursing home in Enfield having been ill since the beginning of the year. For Southgate he was an invaluable helper in the early 2000s when the colts section was re-establishing itself under new management. He also volunteered for the occasional mid-week game and had the distinction of taking a hat-trick for Southgate against the 1987 League XI in 2000. He took over 1,300 wickets for Southgate Adelaide with his slow left-arm bowling. Derrick had been involved with London Schools cricket for 25 years, as manager, coach and festivals organiser. His bohemian-regal presence at his habitual spot at the Southgate bar will be missed by many.

All these members will be very much missed and the club sends its condolences to all the families concerned.

Southgate Colts 2017

The Colts had a successful year. Monday night practice sessions were full due to the recruitment efforts of Vickie Prow. The regular coaches, Adrian Carr, Miles Stanton, Ricky Gunn and Parinda Kularatne were ably supported by Keaton Critchell and Christian McLoughlin.

For the second year in a row there were insufficient players this year to field an Under 11s side notwithstanding the question of who might have managed the side. The Under 13s, however, continued where they had left off last year guided by Miles Stanton to whom, as a colts parent, the club is again immensely grateful.

The U13s finished joint second in Division 1 with Totteridge Millhillians below a powerful Winchmore Hill side. This was an all-round team performance with everyone contributing at some point in each game. Notable performances were fifties from Fred McGill and Luke Brett and best bowling figures of 4 for 11 by Sam Knowles. There was a memorable partnership of 78 between Callum Killeen and Alex Stanton with both batsmen scoring 40 against the best bowling attack in the league. Their never-say die attitude was exemplified in the final game. Potters Bar needed only 31 from the last 6 overs with 5 wickets remaining. Tidy bowling and last ditch fielding saw Southgate take the last 5 wickets for only 15 runs to win by 15 runs. This secured the second place in the league.

The U15s fared much better in 2017 than they had the previous year, though perhaps not as well as their ability suggested. The reason was that the squad was consistent but on many several occasions one stand-out player in the opposition won the game. There was a significant difference in batting performances between home and away which indicates more care is needed in providing the colts with good batting wickets. At home against Cockfosters we were unable to chase 56 even though we lost only 5 wickets. Against Holtwhites we managed to post only 44 in 15 overs, at Holtwhites we posted over 120 and won by about 10 runs and at Cockfosters we scored over 120 in a brave chase of a massive 160 target.

The end-of-season awards supper took place on 26th January and was a great success. The Club President, Mike Smethers, spoke to the assembly of colts, parents and coaches and presented the awards to the following successful colts.

Under 13 Batting: Fred McGill

Under 13 Bowling: Sam Knowles

Under 13 Most Improved Player: Luke Brett

Under 15 Batting: Jack Sclater

Under 15 Bowling: Ollie Gakhar

Under 15 Most Improved Player: George Hooper-Greenhill

Ricky Gunn
